

GREEN CRUISE PORT CONFERENCE 2019

„SMART CRUISE PORT DEVELOPMENTS IN BALTIC SEA REGION“

ON 7TH FEBRUARY 2019 WITH PRE AND POST EVENTS
ON 6TH AND 8TH OF FEBRUARY IN TALLINN, ESTONIA.

FEB 6

15:00-17:00 Steering Committee Meeting (partners only)
(Port of Tallinn Head Office, Sadama 25/1, Tallinn)

18:00-20:00 Welcome reception and tour in Bastion passage
(Kiek in de K k artillery tower, Komandandi tee 2, Tallinn)

FEB 7

09:00- 17:00 Conference, A-terminal Arrivals hall, 3rd floor,
Old City Harbour (Sadama 25/2, Tallinn)

TOPICS AND SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- Opening address – Minister of Transport and Infrastructure Kadri Simson
- Welcoming words Valdo Kalm – CEO, Port of Tallinn
- EU perspective to the Maritime Sustainability and to the Green Cruise Port project – Susanne Scherrer, Interreg Baltic Sea Region Managing Authority, EU
- Overview of the Green Cruise Port Project – Ingo Fehrs, Hamburg Port Authority
- Green Cruise Port Action Plan – Johannes Schmidt, HPC Hamburg Port Consulting, Ingo Fehrs, Hamburg Port Authority
- The World Ports Sustainability Program and how ports can address the Sustainable Development Goals – Antonis Michail, World Ports Sustainability Program
- Step forward from Green to Blue Port Developments – Captain Michael McCarthy, Cruise Europe President
- Sustainable Shipbuilding and ship operator expectations to the ports – Andrus Vaher, Tallink Group
- Opportunities and Limitations for Connecting Cruise Vessels to Shore Power – Even Husby, Port of Bergen
- Sustainable Energy Supply & Innovative Solutions for Emission Reduction Green Bunkering of Cruise Vessels with Sustainable Fuel Options – Port of Esbjerg
- Basic Project of Smart cruise terminal building – Hele-Mai Metsal, Port of Tallinn
- Innovative and sustainable development challenges of Cruise Industry – Cruise Line representatives, among others Ulf Henrick Wynnsdale, Norwegian Yacht Voyages
- Why Cruise Passengers need Green Ports and Sustainable Destinations – Ryan Jenkins, Deneesti

The organizers reserve the right to make changes to the seminar program.

Moderator of the Conference: Margus Vihman, Chief Commercial Officer, Port of Tallinn.

19:00 Gala Dinner, House of Blackheads (Pikk 26, Tallinn)

FEB 8

09:30-11:00 Site visit, gathering at Port of Tallinn (Sadama 25/1)

PLEASE REGISTER TO THE EVENT IN HERE >>

ACCOMMODATION INFO:

Port of Tallinn recommends booking one of the following hotels for your stay in Tallinn:

Tallink Spa & Conference Hotel*

Sadama 11a, Tallinn, Estonia

www.tallinkhotels.com/tallink-spa-conference-hotel

Standard class room single or twin 60.00 €/per night.

The rate includes: accommodation, buffet breakfast, SPA use for whole stay, free wifi and VAT.

Bookings can be made sending an email hotelbooking@tallink.ee using the password GREENCUISE.

Special offer is valid until 21st of January 2019, after that special rate is limited and subject to availability.

Radisson Blu Sky Hotel Tallinn ****

Rävala pst 3, Tallinn, Estonia

www.radissonblu.com/en/skyhotel-tallinn

Accommodation in Standard Guest room for the period 06.-08.02.2019

Daily room rate for Single room 99 EUR and Double/Twin room 109 EUR.

Room rate includes buffet breakfast, fitness centre use, wireless internet all over the hotel, VAT

The room rate is available up to 2 days before/after the event.

For booking please kindly forward the request to Ms Hegle Engman reservations.tallinn@radissonblu.com

Subject line: GREENCUISE. Rates and rooms are available for reservations received by hotel no later than 21.01.2019.

PORT OF  TALLINN

